To Whom It May Concern

Reference: Hi-Tech

I have known Joe and Gary for over 20 years in their capacity towards the running of their successful Hi-Tech stainless business.

They both share the qualities required to ensure each job is finalised with follow-through service in every case.

At many intervals, I have had to ask them to do more for us when unforeseen jobs landed upon us and to their credit, together with their team - they always delivered on time and with efficiency.

I have no hesitation at all towards recommending them to any prospective company that may require their services.

If any further information is required, please do not hesitate to call and verify any questions you may have.

Yours sincerely

Daniel Agostinelli
